ORGANIZED 1805.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 2 } OFFICE OF THE R.E.:GRAND COMMANDER,
Series 1913-1914. } 400 MAIN STREET, WORCESTER, MASS.

December 1, 1913.

WILLIAM W. JOHNSON, Grand Commander.

To all Knights Templars within the Jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery:

The following sentiment has been prepared by the Committee on Christmas Observance of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America:

To Our Most Eminent Grand Master, ARTHUR MACARTHUR:

A quarter of a million Knights of the Temple, in this and other lands, awaiting your first Christmas greeting, again avow their allegiance to you and those in authority, and pledge their devotion to the Great Redeemer and His cause on earth.

The Grand Master sends the following response:

To all Knights Templar:

There can come to no man, occupying whatever position he may, a greeting that is so full of the spirit of Christian Knighthood as the sentiment which comes to me as your Most Eminent Grand Master from the Sir Knights of this Grand Jurisdiction at this Christmas time.

In this approaching season when Christian teachings should prevail, and when Knightly greetings and Knightly sympathy should be manifested on every side, the voice, as of one from this mighty host, comes like music to soothe the cares of day, to inspire to nobler action and to make one feel that life's burden is easier to bear and life's journey easier to tread. In these days of materialism, when the hand of acquisition is busy, when the more beautiful sentiments of life are sometimes pushed rudely aside, when justice with leaden heels and velvet hands harasses and grieves, it is then, and then in its full force that the powers and privileges of Christian Knighthood should show forth in all their beauty, in all their possibilities, and in all their abilities to make life happier and mankind better.

Now when Joy and Peace should be prevalent, there comes to us a more serious thought — that in the regeneration of the world — that in its rebirth — there should ever be present in our daily walk in life, the teachings that made the Man of Nazareth that one great appealing power, whose influence ages have not dimmed, and whose strength for good ever grows stronger.

It is my sincere desire, and my sincere wish that whatever there is in the teachings of our order that can be applied to the amelioration of humanity, that whatever there is in this world for us to do now, that we do it, and do it with a will, glorifying Our Father in Heaven, making it manifest that our appreciation shows itself in good deeds, in charitable acts, and more especially in an upright walk, and a more clear understanding of the duties of Christian Knighthood.

To you all I wish that the joys of Christmastide may come. And as you in turn will, by doing and being, make others happy, so may you be happy.

May God speed you all, and may Peace, Joy, and Contentment sit by your firesides.

It will be gratifying to the Grand Commander to have the Sir Knights of this Jurisdiction, assembled in their Asylums, their homes, or wherever they may be, join in the sentiment prepared by the Committee, and in wishing the Grand Master a joyous and happy Christmas as a mark of their respect and love for the Grand Master.

This order will be borne upon the notice of the stated Conclave next preceding December 25, A. D. 1913, A. O. 795, and be read at the head of each Commandery at said stated Conclave.

Witness my hand and seal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, this first day of December, A. D. 1913, A. O. 795.

WILLIAM W. JOHNSON,
Grand Commander.

Attest:

B. W. ROWELL,

[SEAL] Grand Recorder.
